Location: Covenant Church, 4949 Caroline. 55+ participants
Call to Order: 6:03 pm

Introductions

- Introduction by Sandy Stevens. Sgt. Brian Alms – HPD South Central. Differential Response team. Statistics: Compared to last month, crime has seen an uptick - mostly with catalytic converters. Commander Johnson said most robberies are around the Zoo. She introduced officers, who are working in conjunction with SE Mgt. to address bars/clubs noise issue. To voice a complaint, call 713-884-3131. Also you can call South Central station at 832-394-0200 or Commander Johnson’s cell 281-753-1397. For Quality of Life issues, not emergencies, call Sgt. Alms at (832) 394-0241. brian.alms@houstonpolice.org
- Councilmember Shabazz spoke regarding cameras at convenience stores and clubs and regarding noise issues associated with clubs. Pct. 7 is assisting with the Almeda noise problem. May 7th noise ordinance passed, so it should go into effect in August.
- Catalytic Converter - HPD not allowed to host, can assist. Take 5 on OST has offered to facilitate this program. MPNA has agreed to pay for paint.
- Councilmember Schabazz - addressed X-Houston project. She is setting up a meeting with City Depts. to proactively address this project. She is working on a proposal to present to City Council to create guidelines for protection of neighborhoods.

Sandy Stevens introduced –

- 1) Judge Englehart - introduced himself - running for reelection.
- 2) James Burnett from Rodney Ellis office, Communications Director. Alerted to potential Election Fraud, call 713-755-6965.
- 3) Dr. Tisha Rowe - Honeycomb Clinic office on Almeda
