

MPNA General Meeting Minutes

Date: November 01, 2023
Location: Covenant Church, 4949 Caroline. 50+ participants
Call to Order: 6:07 pm

Introductions: Sandy Stevens

- Houston Police Department, Southcentral, Sgt. Fasel Bashir. fasel.bashir@houstonpolice.org and Sgt. A. Morales. No statistics. Upcoming event at TLH, Sunday, November 5, 11:00 am – 6:00 pm. Street closures and more information was sent out in an email to MPNA distribution. A shuttle will be provided to and from TSU to help with parking. HPD will assist with traffic and security. Also, HPD continues to monitor and respond to hot spots for homeless occupation. HPD is generally in favor of the civility ordinance as another tool to assist with security.

President's Report: Sandy Stevens

- (see above)

MPSN Report: Kathleen O'Reilly

- Civility Ordinance. MPSN was approached about reassessing the Civility Ordinance, which is a petition driven Ordinance that requires 20% of Owners and 100 signatures. It limits occupation of sidewalks. Surrounding neighborhoods have adopted this. The concern is that Museum Park is the unintended catch all. CoH will present to MPNA in January to confirm if there is an interest to put it before Council in March.

Vice President's Report: Pam Campbell

- Trunk or Treat event at HPD Southcentral station was successful.
- Members are encouraged to attend the PIP meetings every third Tuesday at the Southcentral station at 6:00 pm.

Secretary's Report: Greg Quintero

- September 6, 2023, General Meeting Minutes posted to MPNA website
- No minutes from October because the meeting was replaced with National Night Out. More information to follow.
