Hermann Park Community Meeting

Saturday, March 11, 2017
10:30 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Holocaust Museum Houston
Avrohm Wisenberg Classroom
5401 Caroline St.

Are you a Hermann Park community member, park user, or Museum District resident? If so, Houston Arts Alliance (HAA) and the City of Houston Parks and Recreation Department (HPARD) want to hear from YOU!

Join your neighbors for the second of three conversations surrounding Bayou Trails, a community arts project bringing citizen-driven programming to Hermann Park. All are welcome to attend, join the discussion, and help guide the project forward.

BRING A FRIEND OR NEIGHBOR ALONG!

PLEASE NOTE:

This is the second of three gatherings scheduled for Hermann Park. The goal of these meetings is to craft a community-inspired art project specific to the character of Mason, MacGregor, and Hermann parks.

PARKING:

- A limited number of free parking spots are available • Metered parking may be found directly in front of Holocaust Museum Houston, off the Caroline Street entrance, and on Calumet Street • A parking lot is available adjacent to Holocaust Museum Houston. Rate: $5 • Parking for the disabled may be found at the museum's building entrance •
